3) On a certificate from the Superintendent Govt. Gardens That the work is special outside the ordinary course of Mr Dalton Rao's duties and that it does not interfere with those duties, the bonus may be granted

Sub-Asst. Dir. 38 / 2-2-1914. 4) In the Circumstances given I see no objection to the bonus being paid to the party in question. There seems no reason to see it for the party in question but he has no claim to it.

5) It is within the regular duties of Park overseer to attend to such work. claim is an unreasonable after thought should be refused. VL 8/2/1

SIR,

I have the honor to state that Mr.Laxman Rao,Park Over seer, Mysore, has been entrusted with the additional work of laying and regulating the Exhibition grounds and making the place attractive for the show ever since the commencement of the annual Exhibition in Mysore. This additional work no doubt is being attended to by him by working overtime. As it is very reasonable that he should be remunerated for the extra work that has been done by him, I beg to recommend a bonus of Rs.50/- per annumn for the past seven years to Mr.Laxman Rao, which taking into consideration the work for the Exhibition year after year is fairly his due.

I have the honor to be,
